Summary: [T]here's much pleasure to be had in hunting down all the individual stories and piecing together the odd ongoing plotline. However, Weasels offers even broader appeal through its humor, which is laced with absurdity, and steeped in a campiness and affectionate satire that suggests cartoons and pop-culture memes. [is] a talent to watch. In the first of many carefully inked, densely populated, and literally laugh-out-loud spreads, the weasels are seen gathered in a war room, plotting moves on a giant strategy map of the world as their fearless, monocle-wearing leader pets a mouse;...
