Reviews

This publication may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

There always has been in the Big Family a spirit of loyalty, fraternity, mutual good-feeling and friendliness. And it is a matter of congratulation to all of us that this spirit constantly is growing. Thus is created the feeling that one must be a good dealer, a good business man, give good service, make satisfied owners, --in order to feel at ease in the goodly company of Hudson representatives. There is no room in the Big Family for knockers, traitors, loafers, idlers. We want only men of reputation, standing, integrity, energy. We like the kind of man who makes such a strong impression on his prospects, owners, and other dealers that it is said of him: Where MacGregor sits, there is the head of the table. I drffit? VEN in the factory we do not, always, and at all times, think precisely alike on all subjects. Yet we get along very happily by keeping ever in our mind s eye the proper proportion between essentials and nonessentials. For instance--it is essential to keep production steady, work for judicious volume, sell cars, sustain list prices. It is essential that the dealers and the company shall make a fair and reasonable--and steady--annual profit. It is essential that enthusiasm, energy, and ambition be constantly on tap. It is essential...
