Low self esteem is blamed for everything from anti-social behavior to weight gain and depression. If only we could just feel good about ourselves, it is suggested, all of these problems would simply vanish overnight. However, self confidence can be much harder to achieve than this makes it sound. Nor is self-confidence which is not rooted in reality a desirable quality - we have all met people who consider themselves to be the centre of the universe and annoy everyone around them. This is not a book about harnessing some mystical force to fix your problems, but about having a healthy, peaceful sensation of your own value.
