CONTAINING FOUR HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS. View of Masonry from the Deliverance to the Dedication of King Solomon s Temple. In every society, however constituted, some form of government is necessary to preserve a spirit of subordination amongst its members; and to prevent it from degenerating into contempt or oblivion. In this respect, also, Masonry supports its claim to respect and veneration. An argument favourable to its beneficial tendency may be deduced from the excellence of its government, which is founded upon a pattern the most pure and perfect, the government of the Jewish and Christian churches. In the early ages of the world, every head of a family united in his own person the threefold office of priest, prophet, and-king; and it was not until the Mosaic dispensation was revealed that the concerns of religion were conducted by three distinct...
