Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Status of Americans in Mexico: Bulletins of the American Association of Mexico, 1921 From its inception, the American Association of Mexico has directed its activities toward securing justice for Americans in Mexico. It has labored to secure protection for the legally acquired rights of our nationals resident in that country. It has stood, and it stands, upon the principles contained in the program enunciated by Secretary of State Hughes, convinced that friendly relations established upon such terms will possess the essential quality of permanence. It believes that temporary adjustments would prove harmful to both peoples, that fundamental questions at issue must be settled before these two neighbors can live together in harmony upon a basis of goodwill and real reciprocity. First of any of the organized bodies which have to do with the protection of American interests in Mexico, the American Association of Mexico made public announcement that it was opposed to the recognition of any Mexican government until just and fair treatment and proper legal status were assured for such interests. Previous to...
