Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Passing of the Indian and Buffalo The present Pueblo Indians of Arizona and New Mexico living in the regions of these ruins are not a mysterious people nor a more ancient people than other tribes of North American Indians. Six of the Moqui towns are inhabited by Shoshone Indians. The people of the seventh Town Tewa originally from the Valley of the Rio Grande are probably also Shoshone as well as those of the 19 Pueblos of New Mexico. They are all probably a portion of the down drift of the Shoshone movement centuries ago which came from the North and went South down the Valleys on the East and West of the Rocky Mountains to the Rio Grande, thence to the Pacific Ocean. The great variety of life among the various tribes of people on this continent when first noted by the whites is confusing on review and furnishes but little grounds for comparison. The varying degrees of progress or of detail of daily tribal life are perplexing. Still climate of the several...
